Main idea: Knowing the coming judgment of the Lord, we should seek to make disciples.

1. As we see in the fifth trumpet judgment, God will judge unbelievers, and He is faithful to us. But unbelievers do mistreat us and offend us. How can I trust God instead of seeking vengeance? How can I continue to be faithful even when others treat me wrongly?

2. Read 2 Corinthians 5:9-21. How can I live for Christ instead of for myself? How should that mindset change my view of the people around me?

4. How can I fulfill my role as an ambassador for Christ in the ministry of reconciliation that He has given me?

4. Who can I witness to this week? How will I intentionally look for an opportunity to witness to this person this week?

For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others . . . 2 Corinthians 5:10-11a
