

Do Not Rejoice at Fall of Enemy

Proverbs 24:17-18

1. When someone has sinned against me or offended me in some way, what is my first response when they face consequences for sin? Is my first response a Biblical, right response?

2. Am I tempted to be proud and arrogant when I do well and see others face consequences for wrongdoing? According to Romans 11:20, what should be my response? How should I live according to this fear of the Lord?

3. Why is it significant that the Lord has no pleasure in the death of the wicked (Ezekiel 33:11)? How can I look at the wicked the same way the Lord looks at them, by desiring their repentance instead of their punishment?
